"I'm more a brother or a friend, I guess, than a parent or anything. That's the way I try to act and be with him. I don't want him to think — and I don't think he does — that I'm like a teacher or a parent or something. . . . I don't want him to be uncomfortable, like I'm going to be there always looking over his shoulder and always there to report him for things he does wrong and that he tells me. I just want to be there as his friend to help him out.

The Main thing at first was just gaining trust – that trust that he would confide to me. That was important first. I had to let her know that no matter what, she could tell me anything and I'd believe her and trust her and I'd support her. I think that's what these kids need. . . . I think it just takes a long time to build up a trust. "

A Message to All Parents

Your children are not your children.

They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.

They come through you but not from you,

And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,

For they have their own thoughts.

You may house their bodies but not their souls,

*For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow,
which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.*

You may strive to be like them,

but seek not to make them like you.

For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.
